

CONSUMER ALERTS (Updated 1/29/15)

A CONSUMER ALERT is issued by the Petroleum Quality Institute of America (PQIA) when the product tested has a significant potential to cause harm to modern engines. Consumer Alerts have been issued on samples of the following brands. If you see these products, please contact the Nevada Department of Agriculture at (775) 353-3601.

The following products (in red below) have been added to the existing list of products to be aware of:

- Auto Club 5W-30
- Auto Club ATF
- Bullet Motor Oil 5W-30¹
- Bullseye 5W-30
- City Star 5W-30
- City Star ATF
- Everclear 10W-30 and 10W-40
- Everclear ATF
- Liberty Gold Plus 5W-30
- Liberty Gold ATF
- MaxiGuard 10W-40
- MaxiGuard ATF
- Orbit Motor Oil (any grade)
- Orbit ATF²
- Platinum Plus 5W-30
- Royal 10W-40
- Royal Star 5W-30
- Silogram 5W-30³
- SMB ATF
- Star Petroleum 10W-30
- Super Star ATF
- Super XXX 5W-30
- Tri Star ATF²
- US Economy 5-30⁴
- US Spirit 5W-30
- XPRESS LUBE PRO 5W-30 and 10W-30
- XTREME 2000 Super Premium 10W-30⁵

More info on these and other oil products can be found on the PQIA website:
<http://www.pqiamerica.com/>

This list will be updated as warranted. It is up-to-date as of January, 2015.

¹ While the company has corrected this issue, it's worthwhile to be on the lookout for product still on shelves.

² Labeled as a Type A fluid, which is not recommended for vehicles built after 1966.

³ Silogram 5W-30 was shown in 55 gallon drums only.

⁴ '5-30' is shown on the label, but this has no meaning, and in no way is this product equivalent to 5W-30.

⁵ Do not mistake XTREME 2000 with Xtreme oils and lubricants, which are made by Martin Lubricants.