

NEVADA IS A BRAND INSPECTION STATE

1. Per NRS 565, a brand inspection is required on all Bovine and Equine species.
2. A brand inspection is required for all changes of ownership regardless of buying, selling, rescuing or gifting, as well as for slaughter.
3. A brand inspection is required regardless if sold or purchased/received through want-ads, grocery store flyers, Craig's list etc.
4. A brand inspection is required for all transportation across district lines (map attached), within the state and to leave the state. Livestock Movement Permits are available.
5. A brand inspection is required if entering Nevada from a brand inspection state; legal proof of ownership if entering from a non-brand inspection state.
6. A bill of sale is not a legal document to buy/sell livestock in Nevada.
7. A health certificate and negative coggins is required for all equine entering Nevada or entering any neighboring states.
8. A health certificate and entry permit are required on any cattle/bison entering Nevada. For cattle/bison leaving Nevada and entering another state, check that state's requirements.

To find a brand inspector near you, go to <http://agri.nv.gov/Animals/Livestock/Brands/>

For questions regarding health requirements or brand inspection laws call 775-753-1360

Brand Inspection Districts