

YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Nevada Junior Livestock Show Board established a Youth Advisory Council (YAC) in 1990. The council comprises exhibitors who have entered and are showing at the current Show. Past councils have provided valuable input that has been incorporated into future shows' planning. The NJLS Board intends this Council to be of and for youth involved in the Show. The youth will be the determining factor as to the direction and functions of the Council. The YAC will provide a written report to the Board following the Show and Sale.

Council members must be willing and able to meet daily during the Show and, if possible, before the Show.

The Board has two main objectives in forming this Council. They are:
