2026 Southern Nevada Native Seed Forum

The Nevada Department of Agriculture, in partnership with the Desert Research Institute, will host the 2026 Southern Nevada Native Seed Forum. The forum will highlight native seeds and plants specific to Southern Nevada and provide an opportunity to learn more about the region's native plant resources. Attendees may participate in person or virtually, with an optional field trip available for in-person attendees. Seating is limited, so be sure to sign up early and indicate whether you plan to attend in person or virtually.

Wednesday, Dec. 2, 2026
