

Herbicide applications must be performed by an applicator licensed with the state of Nevada. Visual confirmation of herbicide applications may be difficult to determine. For this reason, the Nevada Department of Agriculture requests that herbicide application records be sent to the R.E. responsible for the project once an herbicide application has taken place. Always follow herbicide label requirements when making applications.