AN ACT relating to agriculture; authorizing the growth or cultivation of industrial hemp in this State under certain circumstances; excluding industrial hemp authorized to be grown or cultivated in this State from the definition of marijuana for the purposes of certain crimes; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law prohibits selling, manufacturing, delivering, bringing into the State or possessing any part of any plant of the genus Cannabis, whether growing or not. (NRS 453.339) On February 7, 2014, the President of the United States signed the Agricultural Act of 2014 into law. Section 7606 of the Act authorizes institutions of higher education and state departments of agriculture to cultivate industrial hemp for research purposes under an agricultural pilot program or for other agricultural or academic research. (7 U.S.C. § 5940)

Section 13.5 of this bill authorizes an institution of higher education or the State Department of Agriculture to grow or cultivate industrial hemp for purposes of research conducted under an agricultural pilot program or for other agricultural or academic research. Section 13.5 also requires each site used to grow or cultivate industrial hemp to be certified by and registered with the Department. Section 14 of this bill authorizes the State Board of Agriculture to adopt regulations to carry out these provisions and to restrict or prohibit the use of industrial hemp grown or cultivated pursuant to the provisions of this bill to manufacture cannabidiol or any preparation of cannabidiol.

Sections 28 and 29 of this bill exclude industrial hemp, as defined in section 7 of this bill, which is grown or cultivated for such research purposes from certain crimes relating to marijuana.
